

Private Admonition -- Board Case No. 10, 1995. Date of Sanction: December 8, 1995. With the approval of the Preliminary Review Committee of the Board on Professional Responsibility, an attorney accepted the sanction of a private admonition for violation of DLRPC 3.4(c), which states that a lawyer shall not "knowingly disobey an obligation under the rules of a tribunal except for an open refusal based on an assertion that no valid obligation exists." The attorney knowingly disobeyed the Delaware Rules for Mandatory Continuing Legal Education, promulgated by order of the Delaware Supreme Court, by failing to complete 30 hours in approved continuing legal education activities within the two-year period ending July 31, 1994. The attorney also failed to respond to several delinquency notices from the Commission on Continuing Legal Education.
